

SUPPORTING FAMILIES TOGETHER ASSOCIATION

Spark up Your Programming with a Motivating Training Event or Customized Technical Assistance

SFTA designs customized training and consultation events to improve the quality of Early Care and Education programs. Our vision is to make good programs GREAT!

Topics of special interest for teaching staff include:

- The Intentional Teacher
- Bringing Math and Science Alive in Your Classroom
- Blending Art and Literacy
- The Process of Developing an Art Program
- Brining Joy to Your Work with Infants and Toddlers
- Understanding Curriculum Design and Development
- Improving Program Quality, a Process for Everyone
- Developing Self Regulation (better known as Guiding Challenging Behaviors)
- Observation and Assessment of Child Progress
- How Classroom Environments GUIDE Behavior
- Meaningful Conversations Build Strong Relationships

Topics of special interest for Directors include:

- Teacher Professionalism – A Call to Action
- “It’s Simply Unacceptable” Responding to Workplace Gossip
- Mediation or Mind Control, Conflict Resolution Among Co-Workers
- We Are All in This Together, Building a Responsive, Respectful TEAM
- Resolving Conflicts- Having Challenging but Productive
- Conversations with Parents
- Making Responsible Professional Decisions
- Using the NAEYC Code of Ethics in Your Work
- or YOUR topic of interest

Please contact Barb Evensen, Training and Consulting Coordinator, at (920) 748-2247 or barb@supportingfamielstoegether.org to arrange a customized event.